2,500 square foot loft with 1,300 square foot roof deck.

The loft is all on one floor, and separated into two apartments that can be rented together or separately. Top floor above industrial car garage. No noise or any other kind of restrictions. Very light, white, open space, feels like a bungalow or case study house. Interesting metal ceiling. Plenty of AC and heat throughout.

Large apartment features one giant 1,500 space that has open kitchen with bar, living room, and children's sleeping nook with bunk bed. Nook can be closed off by curtain. All white concrete floors. Bathroom with shower and window facing west. Windows in the kitchen area face north, windows in the living room face south, with door to outdoor deck. Living room has projector installed that can screen DVDs on large wall. Bedroom 14x22 feet with full bed, built in closet. Throughout mix of antique furniture with light modern furniture, large rugs, original artwork, and music instruments that also be taken away. Wifi.

Small apartment approx 500 square feet, open layout, all newly tastefully furnished with open kitchen, living room and bed nook with two single beds. Dark blue concrete floor. Outdoor deck access via living room in large apartment on same floor with nice outdoor furniture and plants, floor painted greenish hue.

270 degrees view of downtown Brooklyn, Park slope and lower Manhattan with secure fence all around. Sun light all day long with shady corner under tree. The roof above the apartment itself is also accessible, painted silver, 360 degree views. No railing!!! Access via ladder from roof garden.

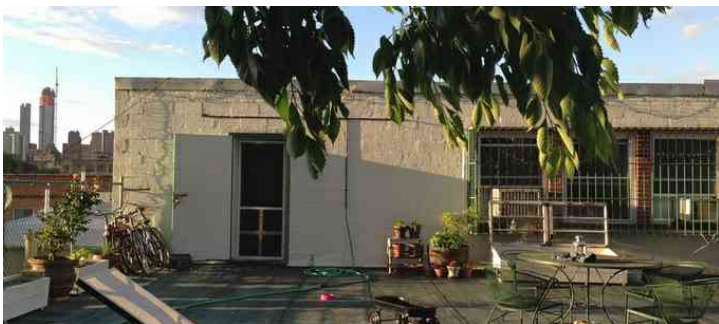

Rooftop deck, plants, art, exposed pipes, modern, pedestal sink
