Notes

Film friendly

This Brooklyn studio has a great industrial feel, with exposed brick walls and skylights. The large garage door entrance on the ground level allows easy movement of props and equipment in and out, and allows for even more natural light. There is a hair and makeup station. This versatile space has brick, gray floors, and some white walls and ceilings

This is a photo studio - all equipment rentals must be made direct with the studip, no exceptions

Restrictions:

All floors must be protected, booties must be worn over shoes

Areas of use determined in advance
