Notes

This Berkshires Italianate, built in 1850, is the perfect combination of historical details & modern design. Taking cues largely from Italian design and its use of color, the home features multiple thematic spaces, each of which skillfully merge old and new.

Ceilings throughout the house are 13’ high, and original details abound, from the two beautifully stained hardwood ceilings in the dining and living room, to 2 hand painted slate fireplaces, to original trim. In 2018, the owners completed a full renovation/restoration of the house.

The house has 6 spacious bedrooms upstairs, each with their own design point of view — from the flowy white simplicity of the Zen room, to the lush and verdant greens of the Jungle room. Set on an acre+, the house has a large treed in side-yard and features a rustic barn that pre-dates the house.
