Notes

Gracious, impeccably renovated estate on 5 acres along the shores of Quantuck Bay. This traditional shingle house built in 1908 was formerly owned by Oleg Cassini and entertained the Kennedys.

Features include a great room, spacious chef's eat-in kitchen, wrap-around screened porch, and many wonderful original details.

The property is tucked away in a private setting with sprawling gardens and has a heated saltwater pool, tennis court and boat dock.

Restrictions:

No painting of walls; no nailing into walls.
