Notes

Classic New England antique Colonial built in 1820 with the original barn across the street. The house has 4 bedrooms, 2.5 baths, 2 living rooms, 1 dining room and 2 kitchens; on 2.5 acres with mature landscaping.

This gut renovated house has wide plank pine floors throughout, exposed beams, and shaker molding. One of the original features preserved in the main 1820 side of the house are the original windows which let in the most magical light. The shaker style deVol kitchen features all Smeg appliances, marble countertops and deVol creamware lighting. The entire house has new walls freshly painted in Farrow and Ball All White and Benjamin Moore White Dove.

The home has a modern extension that was added in 2006 which features it's own deVol kitchen, living room, bathroom, bedroom and deck.

Restrictions:

Floor protection requested; prefer no shoes inside (bring shoe covers).

No painting or nailing into walls.
