Notes

1911 Colonial-style home set on over two quiet acres in Norwalk, CT. The interiors are professionally designed with a thoughtful mix of classic architecture, layered textures, and warm, lived-in details.

On the main floor, there's an expansive living room with a wood-burning fireplace, a formal dining room, a cozy wallpapered TV room, a traditional kitchen with original details, a light-filled sunroom with checkered tile floors, and a moody art-filled gallery.

Upstairs are three bedrooms and a sunlit office tucked under the eaves—each space with its own distinct character and charm. Just off the garage, a renovated studio offers tall ceilings, soft natural light, and a wood-burning stove.

Outside, a bluestone patio surrounds the pool, framed by mature trees, open lawn, stone walls and wooded edges.

The owner is an interior designer, former executive creative director, and content creator. Styling, set design, and creative direction available upon request.
