Notes

Beautiful 1890s brownstone nestled on one of Park Slope’s most iconic tree-lined streets. This 5-story townhouse blends original period details and modern sophistication, designed in collaboration with Taylor + Miller. From ornate wood paneling and six decorative fireplaces to vibrant stained glass windows and a cascading skylight, the home is filled with character, charm, and natural light from both northern and southern exposures.

The space unfolds across grand parlors, a chef’s kitchen with top-tier appliances, and thoughtfully curated rooms including a library, media room, playroom, and two private offices. Three serene bedrooms are complemented by spa-like bathrooms featuring clawfoot and freestanding bathtubs. With high ceilings, a lush backyard, and luxe tech amenities (4K projector and Sonos system), this townhouse is as functional as it is beautiful—perfect for both grand gatherings and intimate moments.
