Notes

Steeped in history and timeless charm, this extraordinary Brooklyn Heights Federal-style home is a true masterpiece of the neighborhood’s past. Widely considered one of the oldest residences in the historic district, this unique property offers a rare combination of old-world elegance and modern-day convenience.

The main house, a four-story wood-frame marvel, has recently undergone a full gut renovation. The property also features a separate, two-story carriage house with its own kitchen and private entrance.

A private, walled garden connects the two structures, providing a serene outdoor sanctuary.

Restrictions:

Floor protection requested.
