Notes

Traditional farmhouse and vineyard located 62 miles from Barcelona.

Tucked into the rural heart of Tarragona, this historic Catalan Indiana Style Farm house/finca has historic roots stretching back to Roman times. Today, the land remains stitched into the cultural and agricultural fabric of the region, blending tradition, terroir, and timeless Mediterranean charm.

This 33-hectare estate offers a rare blend of natural beauty, agricultural richness, and architectural character. The main house spans 650 square meters across three floors, complete with original stonework, tall windows, a small chapel, and sweeping views of the surrounding hills.

Additional structures include a multi-level garage wine cellar-warehouse, and covered storage. A small River stream divides the hazelnut parcels from the vineyard. The landscape offers a natural canvas for shoots or events, is largely flat and well-connected to nearby towns.

A 16 hectares pine forrest stretches up a hill beyond the vineyard towards another historic village.

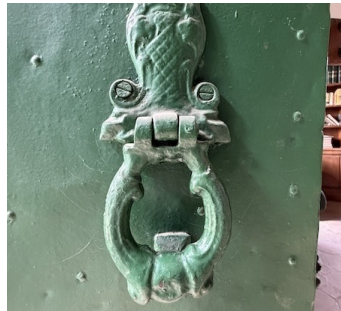

20 minute drive to the beach.
