Notes

Midcentury modern A-frame nestled into the mountains of the Hudson Valley in Beacon, NY (90 mins drive from NYC, 80 mins by train.) The home includes use of its original midcentury modern furnishings, a living room with tall pine ceilings and a floor to ceiling stone fireplace.

The space features open-plan so the living flows into the dining room and kitchen. There are 2 floors available for use, each with its own kitchen and bathroom, and plenty of room for staging. The living room is ground level (up 3 steps) and there are steps both inside and out leading to the lower level.

Parking lot fits 4 cars or 2 trucks; street parking fits 4 cars, nearby parking lot for overflow.

Restrictions:

Prefer no shoes inside - protect floor, bring booties.

3rd floor (not shown) is not available unless special arrangements made.
